

Indonesia to deport Dutch journalists from Papua

Geschreven door ABC Radio Australian News
donderdag 26 maart 2009 14:16

Indonesia's foreign minister Hassan Wirajuda says four Dutch journalists held for questioning in

And he has told the news website Detikcom that immigration officials have been handling the matter "ap

The four were detained after covering a pro-independence rally in the province.

They have all been released, but three have had their passports confiscated and refused permission to l

The fourth is said to have gone on to the Indonesia capital, Jakarta.

Indonesian Foreign Minister Hassan Wirajuda says immigration officials have been handling the matter '